Appendix
Form B
School _____

School System _____

Signed _____
School Administrator

Date _____

Students With Disabilities
Accommodations for End-of-Course Tests and State Tests at Grades 9–12
Summary Form for Schools by Test

For Local Use Only

Date _____

School Year _____

Check appropriate test below:

☐ NC End-of-Course Test of _____
(record test name)

☐ NC General Writing Assessment at Grade 10

☐ NCEXTEND2 OCS Test[2] of _____
(record test name)

☐ State-Identified Englsih Language Proficiency Test

Student Name	Grade	Section 504 or Area of Exceptionality	Test Format				Assistive Technology Devices and Special Test Arrangements										Test Environment
			Braille Edition	Computer Skills Portfolio Accommodation (not available for online test)	Large Print Edition	One Test Item Per Page Edition	Assistive Technologies/Devices Specify: _____	Braille Writer/Slate and Stylus (and Braille Paper)	Cranmer Abacus	Dictation to a Scribe (will not receive convention score for writing assessments)	Interpreter/Transliterator Signs/Cues Test (not for test of reading skills)	Keyboarding Devices	Magnification Devices	Student Marks Answers in Test Book	Student Reads Test Aloud to Self	Test Administrator Reads Test Aloud (not for test of reading skills) Specify: Read everything Read by student request Other: _____	Hospital/Home Testing	Multiple Testing Sessions	Scheduled Extended Time	Testing in a Separate Room (Specify One-on-one or Small Group)	Other[1]

[1] An Accommodation Notification Form must be submitted to the LEA test coordinator. Use of an accommodation not located in the state accommodations publications requires completion of the Accommodation Notification Form, available through the school test coordinator. Use of certain unauthorized accommodations may invalidate test results.

[2] The NCEXTEND2 OCS tests that are available are Occupational English I, Occupational Mathematics II, Life Skills Science I and II, and OCS Writing at grade 10.

NOTE: If this completed form is transmitted electronically, the LEA must ensure that student confidentiality is maintained.