II. MISSION, PURPOSES and EDUCATIONAL FOCUS (G.S.115C-238.29A)

MISSION:
The mission of the proposed charter school is as follows:

The Waddell Elementary International Charter School (WEICS) will provide each student a global learning environment with emphasis on Science, Technology, Character Education, Math, Reading, and a special Spanish Immersion Program along with parental and community involvement.

EVIDENCE FOR NEED OF THE PROPOSED SCHOOL:
Describe the community relationships forged in the preparation of the charter application. Provide information detailing how the community and parents have been involved in the formation of the proposed mission statement.
Evidence of surveys, dates, times, and locations of public meetings discussing this proposed charter school can be used to demonstrate the level of public interest.

Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools are a charter network in three counties, Randolph, Roberson and Scotland. We are stakeholders in these counties through educational employment, birth, citizenship and relationships. This network has been formed to reduce the overall expenditures on indirect cost and to strengthen direct educational cost. Our charter is parent, teacher, administration, agency, legislator, and community driven charter school network.
The non-profit parent company, Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. was formed to oversee the charter network and is legally responsible for all transaction of the charter schools.
The non-profit is the culmination of non-profits specialists who together have more than 100 years of educational work, community, armed service, Federal and State education, audit, grant review and volunteer service. The strategy of the centralization of the administrative office for our three county charter schools is to maximize the expenditure of the budget that is spent directly for teacher salaries, educational supplies, technology and equipment.
The board members are experienced administrators and a Federal contract and grants auditor who will understand separation of funds for each school. The Board will hire a GCC approved Certified Accounting Firm to oversee the financial funds regulations, guidelines, and audit requirements.
The network also provides an extensive pool of education, technological, administrative talent and resources that will provide a strong certainty of growth and success. The strong community stakeholders’ support will ensure the oversight and positive direction of the schools. The Universities’ support will provide on-going research for new and innovative instructional materials, technology, and methodology.
Our goal is to decrease the number of at-risk students by fortifying them with a strong Character
Education aligned with the North Carolina State Board of Education’s ABC’s Accountability Model, STEM, Common Core, and NC Essential Standard Education. Our strategy is to send our students into middle school with a strong academic and character education. Statistically middle school is where the academic and behavior issues show the gap for successful completion of high school.
The Board of Directors for Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. is comprised of individuals with deep roots in the communities where Charter Schools have been proposed.
These individuals have firsthand knowledge of the achievement gaps, the extreme economic need, and the disparity between ethnic groups of the various communities. Tables I & II provides demographic data and illustrates the socioeconomic needs of the target communities for the three county areas that will be served.

Source: U. S. Census Bureau 2005-2009, American Community Survey

The data for Table I offer an analysis of the populations below the poverty level for the three-county area, and indicates a significant part of the minority population comprised the group of persons with incomes below the poverty level. As an example, African American comprised 5,385 of the 9,839 persons in poverty in Scotland County which represented 40.8 percent of the African American population for the county. Similarly, 41.6 percent of the African American population in Robeson County had incomes below the poverty level, and 22.8 percent of the population in Randolph County.

The poverty levels were also high among other minority groups in the three-county area when compared to non-minority populations. More than seventy percent (70.7%) of the Hispanic/Latino population in Scotland County (311 individuals), and over thirty percent (31.9%) of the American Indian population were poor. In Robeson County, 52% of the Hispanic/Latino population (5,307 persons) and 27.5% of the American Indian population (12,600 persons) lived in poverty in 2009. While Non-Hispanic Whites represented a large population of the impoverished in the three counties, ethnic minority groups were clearly overrepresented among those living in poverty.

Educational Attainment

A number of studies have established links between poverty and a variety of unsatisfactory outcomes among children and youth, including a profound impact on educational attainment of children.

Data for the population of 18 -24 year olds for the three counties offer a snapshot for the educational attainment levels in the communities that will be served by the Charter School. Although thirty percent or more of the youth in each county were high school graduates, a significant pool of students in each county did not complete high school. The individuals without a diploma will typically earn a lower level of income and are more likely to be unemployed when compared to high school graduates and others with higher educational levels, (U.S. Census Report, 2011). Further, the inter-relatedness of education, income, and occupational status suggest that children in households where parents do not have a basic education are at greater risk of low achievement themselves.

However, parental involvement during the early years of a child’s education has shown promise as an effective intervention strategy for promoting students’ achievement, (Fan & Chen, 2001), (Marzano, 2004). Additionally, Thomas Friedman (Columnist for The New York Times) has suggested that better parent involvement can also “make every teacher more effective”, (Greensboro News & Record, 2011).

Waddell International Charter Schools will provide the families of these communities a much needed choice in public education. The Charter Schools will be available without entrance requirements and will be tuition free.

The Board of Directors worked very closely with community leaders and stakeholders from the target communities to develop and refine the direction for the Charter Schools. Initially, a small work group gathered to draft ideas for the school, and these ideas were shared with a broad group of representatives from the community including parents, former teachers, elected officials, ministers, former administrators, community advocates, social workers, business owners, and investors to review and evaluate the focus for the school. Following these meetings and the necessary revisions to the school’s plan, follow-up meetings were staged in each county that would be served by the school. The Town Council Meeting in one community served as a forum along with opportunities to speak at a local church service. In other communities the informational sessions were scheduled and advertised by flyers, public service announcement in the local media, direct mailings, telephone calls, and personal invitations. All meetings involved an open and thorough discussion of the school after which several individuals volunteered to serve on the local advisory board for the school. Signature sheets and electronic surveys were used to further determine the interests for the Charter School. Table III offers the dates and locations for meetings held in the various communities.

PURPOSES OF PROPOSED CHARTER SCHOOL:
State the relationship between the six legislated purposes, as specifically addressed in the NC charter school statute GS115C-238.29A, and the proposed school’s operations.

1. Improve Student Learning
   Waddell Elementary International Charter School will improve student learning by implementing the new North Carolina Common Core Standards and Essential Standards for elementary schools with an infusion of curriculum mapping, looping, life skills and project based learning. WEICS will provide a school within a school with an inclusion of Spanish Immersion program starting at kindergarten.
   We will engage our students in global environments of other cultures to encourage global exchanges. WEICS’s curriculum will enable each student to think critically and logically.

2. Increase Learning Opportunities for all students with special emphasis on expanded learning experiences from students who are identified as exceptional at-risk of academic failure or academically gifted.
   The WEICS curriculum will consist of four important areas that are good ingredients for learning: (1) Smaller classroom sizes; smaller classrooms will enable all students to receive more individualized instruction from the teacher, and immediate feedback. (2) The use of hands on learning involving nature and natural science experiences in technology, math, music, and art; (3) Age and developmental appropriate instructional activities and support for students with disabilities, at-risk students, as well as academically gifted students; (4) Looping teachers into the next grade with the students who they taught in the previous grade.
   This will allow the teacher to learn the student’s learning style and place accountability on the student and teacher for three years. Life skills and project based experiences will be implemented throughout the curriculum.

3. Encourage the use of different and innovative teaching methods:
   Instructional practices of the Waddell Elementary International Charter School will fuel students’ natural passion for learning, develop their capacity to work cooperatively, and encourage success in and out of the classroom. Teachers will provide unique tools, quality instruction, proven strategies; research methodologies, curriculum mapping and individualized services that lead to success for all students, regardless of ability. Our curriculum is the NC Core Standards and Essential Standards with the infusion of curriculum mapping, teacher looping, STEM and Spanish Immersion. Technology will be used through project based learning, and on-line learning in mathematics and science.
   Waddell Elementary International Charter School will include the following innovative teaching methods:
   - Carnegie Mellon has partnered with WEICS to provide online courses (www.alice.org), an on-line interactive computer program that teaches children beginners computer programming. Khan Academy (www.khananacademy.org) an online math instructional program will be integrated into the core math curriculum.
   - Mechanics and Farmers Bank will implement its financial literacy program into our curriculum.
   - Massachusetts Institute of Technology (www.scratch.mit.edu) has an online reading, writing, and arts program that will be integrated into the project based and life skills learning.
   - North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University’s School of Technology will send education interns to our schools. The interns will assist the teachers implementing new instructional technology.
A doctoral candidate from the University of North Carolina at Pembroke will collaborate with our Robeson and Scotland County Schools to assist teachers in implementing new instructional technology.

4. Create new professional opportunities for teachers including the opportunities to be responsible for the learning program at the school site:
Waddell Elementary International Charter School will provide:
- Internal and external professional development for our teachers and support staff.
- Administrators, teachers and staff will attend programs and activities to enhance the schools learning program.
- Allow common planning time for teaching and learning sessions and for sharing and implementing innovative ideas and strategies.
- Administration will give full attention to our teacher’s suggestions and implementing these ideas after a feasibility study has been done.
- Teachers will be able to create their own skills assessment test in math, reading and science.
- Curriculum mapping will provide an excellent opportunity for teachers to provide innovative ideas and techniques; instill ownership in teaching styles, and a sense of inclusion in the development of our curriculum and the school.

5. Provide parents and students with expanded choices in the types of educational opportunities that are available within the public school system:
- Students will be instructed by certified, well trained and innovated teachers who will have at their disposal the administration’s support, technology and materials to teach.
- Provide kindergarten students Spanish as a second language and Spanish Immersion School within a school.
- In classroom on-line computer programming courses
- Smaller student-teacher ratio
- Parents will be kept abreast of new technology, teaching and educational materials that they can access on-line and community events.
- Parents will be privy to learning opportunities for themselves that will expand their knowledge.
- Provide after school tutoring through the Supplemental Educational Support (SES) Tutorial Program.

6. Hold the schools established under this Part accountable for meeting measurable student achievement results, and provide the schools with a method to change from rule based to performance based accountability systems. (1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 731, s.2.)
The Waddell Elementary International Charter School is accountable to its parents, students, teachers, the community, and the State Board of Education. WEICS is a performance based schools network that utilizes curriculum mapping accountability, technology, research and a teacher evaluation system. These strategies translate into administration accountability to meet the benchmarks, ABC’s AYP and EOG measurable student achievement results under the Federal No Child Left Behind mandate. Each grade level teachers at WEICS will meet on a regular basis to discuss corrective instructional strategies for students who are not performing on their level.
EDUCATIONAL FOCUS:
Describe briefly, limited to one page, the focus of the proposed charter school. This description will be used in public releases of information to interested parties, such as: the media, the State Board of Education, parents, school systems, and in various documents produced by the Office of Charter Schools. It must be concise and relate directly to the mission of the school.

The Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will not discriminate against any student on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, gender, or disability and the schools will not limit admissions to the students on the basis of intellectual ability, measures of achievement or aptitude or athletic ability, disability, race, creed, gender, national origin, religion.

To Whom It May Concern:

Partners for Developing Futures (“Partners”) is pleased to offer this letter in support of the charter application developed by the founding team of Waddell Elementary International Charter School. Partners is a nonprofit social venture investment fund that primarily invests in high-potential, early stage minority-led charter schools and charter school networks that educate underserved students.

Last fall, Partners held a competitive process for financial and technical assistance to support the Creation of high quality charter schools by leaders of color in high need communities in North Carolina. We were overwhelmed with the positive response to our request for proposals and received a total of 87 applications for the first phase in the selection process. 30 applicants were invited to submit a follow-up proposal of which 14 were selected for a capacity interview.

We are pleased to confirm that staff will make a recommendation to the Partners Board for a planning grant to support the development of Waddell Elementary International Charter School. Due to Partners’ limited resources, staff only recommends the highest quality applicants for funding to our Board. The Partners’ Board makes the final decision regarding investments.

We wish Waddell Elementary International Charter School luck as they embark on the charter approval process. While the school awaits a decision about our recommendation to the Board, the school’s development team will have access to our staff who have deep experience and knowledge in creating, replicating, and scaling high quality schools serving traditionally underserved students and our national network of minority leaders who are already closing the achievement gap for students in places like New York City, New Orleans, Los Angeles, Chicago, and Albuquerque.

- Explain the decision-making processes the board will use to develop school policies.

Waddell International Board of Directors are responsible for the operations and fiduciary duties of the charter. The board will empower the Superintendent to implement school-based decision-making.

School-based decision-making rests on three well-established propositions:
The Head Masters, teachers, parents, students and community of the school are the primary decision-making unit within the schools.

Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. emphasize accountability and ownership from all its stakeholders. Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools’ mission statement and the school pledge set the tone for accountability and involvement of all stakeholders.

Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. will promote ownership at all levels of stakeholders. We will give the opportunity to participate in change and the flexibility to adapt individual circumstances for students and teachers; the corollary is that change does not result from imposed procedures.

Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. decision-making process will be inclusive of its stakeholders. The development of the school’s vision statement will be a school-wide effort affording the stakeholders the opportunity to understand the power of their commitment to decisions.

Portray how the board will involve parents and community members in governing the school.

The Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. Board of Directors will consist of at least one parent whose child is enrolled or has been enrolled in at least one of the Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools. Community leaders and politicians are the supporters and members of our board and our advisory boards.

Describe the organization’s performance-based goals and measurable objectives for the charter school. Organizational goals and measurable objectives should describe and measure the effectiveness and viability of the organization.

Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. will set the cultural environment to ascertain accountability to our performance goals and measurable objectives.

WEICS will always align its performance-based goals and objectives with its mission statement. One can determine an organization’s true goals not by reading their charter but by examining the resource allocation process. Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools are a network of charter schools that have formed a union for best practices, expenditures, and revenues.

Goal 1

Waddell Elementary International Charter School will begin operating under the Common Core and NC Essential Standards in the 2013-14 school years. We will have a student target population of at-risk students. Our goal will be to have 75% of our third grade students that will pass the End of Grade with at least a “3” on Reading and Math. Our goal for 2014-2015 will be to have 85% of our third grade students pass the EOG with at least a “3” on Reading and Math.

Performance Indicators for Goal #1:
The state’s ABC’s targets increase each year until 100% of students will be required to meet or exceed standards by the year 2014 WEICS will use a combination of the AYP requirement and the prior year (2013-14) test scores to set baseline data.

Goal 2
Students who enroll at the Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools and remain enrolled will show growth relative to state standards each year the student is enrolled at our schools.

Performance indicators for Goal #2:
The percentage of students not meeting expectations on each subject of the EOG in each group will decrease by twenty percent (20%) each year. In addition, the percentage of students exceeding standard in each group will increase by ten percent (10%) each year.

Goal 3
Each school year term (2013-2018), WEICS will retain its staff until the schools reach 90% or higher. WEICS will continue to renew yearly staff contracts.

If any director has an adverted interest or conflict of interest in a corporate transaction, he/she must make full disclosure to the Board of Directors concerning the matter. As the matter places the Director between interest of the Corporation and the interest of the Director’s family or business, the Director with the conflict shall be prohibited from participating in the discussion and vote on that matter. However, no such transaction of sections 4941 of the Internal Revenue code of 1985, of corresponding provisions of any later federal tax laws, or if it would result in the imposition of any excise tax under corresponding provision of any later federal tax laws.
ADMISSIONS POLICY (G.S.115C-238.29B(b)(4); G.S. 115C-238.29F(d)(1))

Provide a description of the policies and the procedures for admitting students to the proposed charter school, including specific details of the enrollment lottery plan, statutorily allowed preferences, a plan to develop clear procedures for withdrawals and transfers, as well as subsequent marketing strategies to reach all demographic groups.

The school shall report electronically through the North Carolina Window on Student Education (NC WISE) the names and addresses of parents and guardians and ID numbers of all students enrolled. There will be a student head count after the first twenty days of school.

When a student withdraws from WEICS, WEICS will promptly notify the local Board of Education in their attendance area so that the local board may fulfill the legal obligation to verify the student’s compliance with compulsory attendance laws.

In the event of a withdrawal or transfer, WEICS will determine the school the student is transferred to and make this information available to the local LEA.

Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. has formed a network of collaborates with representatives from a variety of ethnic groups and socio-economic groups. Our marketing strategy has crossed all demographic groups because we are African Americans, Native Americans, Hispanic Americans, Caucasian Americans, Jewish Americans and other diverse ethnic groups. Marketing has been word of mouth, social media, and radio and TV announcements. Our committees have gone door-to-door passing flyers and getting petitions from interested parents, community leaders. Because of our diversity, we have included all demographic groups that reflect the make-up of our school should reflect the make-up of our counties.

In the recruitment process WEICS will not discriminate basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, gender, or disability, and the school will not limit admission to the students on the basis of intellectual ability, measures of achievement or aptitude, athletic ability, disability, race, creed, gender, national origin, religion or ancestry. WEICS will use the “Child Find Act” to locate all students in our school areas.

It is the inherent right of every North Carolina child to a free and public education under our State’s Constitution and NC Statues. Article IX, Sections 2 and 3; N.C. General Statue Section 115C-364.,-366. WEICS admission age will be four-years old in accordance with N.C. General Statue Section 115C-364(a). WEICS will perform an Initial Entry during the first 120 days in accordance with N.C. General Statue 115 C 364 (a). Initial Entry after the first 120 days will be governed by General Statue Section 115C-364 (b).

Waddell Elementary International Charter School will hold an announced and advertised open enrollment meeting. Any interested applicants must attend an open house session during which the philosophy of the school and the application process will be explained. Parent/guardian of all potential enrollees must submit an application by the designated closing date. All applicants who submit an application prior to the enrollment deadline will be admitted, unless the number of applications for a grade level exceeds the number of openings at that grade level. If the number of applicants for a grade level exceeds the number of openings at that grade level, a public lottery will be held to determine the admissions for that grade level. All applicants that are not admitted after the lottery fulfills WEICS maximum enrollment will be placed on a waiting list.
Enrollment priority will be given to children of the School’s staff, teachers and assistant teachers. After the initial year, enrollment priority will be given to siblings of existing and legacy students.

V. EDUCATION PLAN

NOTE: Answer all sections completely, include your answers in this section of the application, do not include as an appendices. Do not use “same as LEA” or “whatever the law says”. The State Board of Education shall give priority consideration to the applicants who demonstrate potential for significant, meaningful innovation in education. Give explanations. Lack of proper documentation will jeopardize the application review.

INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM: (G.S. 115C-238.29F (d))

Provide a detailed description of the overall instructional program, including the following:

• Educational theory, foundation of the model and proposed innovative offerings.

It is Waddell Elementary International Charter School's belief that all children can learn according to their ability if given the proper environment and tools to work with. According to John Dewey’s theory “Learn by Doing”, students learn more from actual experiences than actual textbooks. WEICS will prepare and encourage students to become life-long learners by designing and developing a curriculum that will enable them to reach their full academic potential. WEICS students will become engaged learners through hands-on activities and interactions in the classroom which will provide a continuing framework for education. Students will be able to reflect upon their own ideas and opinions after their learning experience. All students will be respected and accepted regardless of different cultures, religions, and family backgrounds. As a class project, students will be encouraged to volunteer in the community.

WEICS will utilize different approaches and programs to advocate Dewey’s theory of “Learn by Doing”. Some of the approaches and programs include:

• Project Based Learning: Emphasis is placed on the learner and allows for in-depth study of what the students are learning, rather than having the students adhere to a set of the traditional lesson plans. The students are encouraged to construct personal and meaningful projects that motivate, maintain interest, have greater control over their learning experience, and demonstrate accountability throughout the process. The projects will involve presentations, plays, poems, and other differentiated learning experiences.

• Science, Technology, Engineering, Math (STEM) and Reading: Strong emphasis on the skills and guided experiences that will prepare students for the global market in science, technology, engineering, and math, as well as an emphasis on reading comprehension and literacy.

• Teaching approach, class structure, curriculum design, courses of study, sample daily schedule, pillars of the school culture, and instructional methodology that align with the school’s mission.
The Waddell Elementary International Charter School will use the six pillars of character as a basis for WEICS character education curriculum. These pillars include trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and citizenship. WEICS will focus each month on a different pillar. Teachers will facilitate the lessons with a variety of activities such as stories, drama, demonstrations, poetry, writing, and music. By teaching the six pillars of character, WEICS will provide a positive learning environment for student success.

WEICS teaching approach will be centered around project based learning which will involve hands-on techniques, guided experiences, complex questions and real life tasks and challenges. The focus is on helping students move through an inquiry process that stimulates their thinking, engages them in authentic tasks, and demands demonstration of mastery. WEICS class structure will be self-contained in grades K-3 with a mixture of formal, informal, and teaming situations depending on the common core standard being taught. The self-contained class will include individualized learning, guided experiences, as well as collaborative groups to help address the common core standards. WEICS curriculum design will be based on NC Common Core Standards as well as some other innovative and on-line programs such as Khan Academy (on-line math instructional program), an on-line reading, writing, and arts program (www.scratch.mit.edu), and an on-line interactive computer program (www.Alice.org) that teaches children beginners computer programming.

WEICS instructional methodology will be based on project based learning that will help students academically in the core subjects as well as technology and global awareness in grades K-3.

- Demonstration that selected goals are clear, specific, measurable, ambitious and attainable.

Waddell Elementary International Charter School students will attain one or more years of growth by the end of the school year. All students will be assessed at the beginning of the school year to determine the students' performance level. An academic diagnostic test will be administered to find out specific skills to be taught or reinforced. Data obtained from this test will be used to develop each student’s personal education plan (PEP) and to follow each student’s growth pattern during the school year. Evaluation tools used during the year to demonstrate that students have attained the skills and knowledge specified for the goal include:

- Curriculum mapping
- Assessments
- Benchmarks
- Teacher made tests and observations
- Teacher checklist

Timeline:

At the beginning of the school year, parents, teachers, and students will meet to discuss the objectives to be obtained during the first semester.

At the end of each nine weeks, teachers will assess each student’s growth and evaluate their strengths and weaknesses. Teachers will also review specific skills that need to be reinforced or mastered. At the end of each semester, parents, teachers, and students will meet for a formal evaluation of the student’s objectives and accomplishments of their particular goal. At that time, the personal education plan will be re-evaluated and adjusted to the student’s strengths and weaknesses. By the end of the school year, students will have achieved their objectives with one or more years of growth.

• A concise description of any evaluation tool or test, if any, that the proposed charter school will use in addition to any state or federally mandated tests and how this data will be used to drive instruction and improve the curriculum over time for the benefit of students.

Waddell Elementary International Charter School criteria for academic excellence and the academic maintenance of our premier schools will be measured through:

• Academic surveys completed by students, parents, and teachers
• Daily curriculum mapping tracking
• Teacher constructed tests and observations
• Reports from evaluator’s performance audits
• WEICS students demonstrating a minimum of 70% proficiency in reading, math and science
• Students having an opportunity to conference with their parents on work completed in their academic portfolio

In addition to the state and federally mandated tests, WEICS will use these evaluation tools to help individualize each student’s instruction and provide additional assistance according to the state standards.

• Provide an overview of the professional development needs associated with the mission and proposed instructional program. Be sure this discussion matches with the funding of the budget section.

Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will conduct a Staff Development Institute that will provide an orientation and training prior to the schools’ opening. The institute will include: orientation to the Schools’ mission and philosophy, state and federal requirements, school policies and procedures, equipment and technology, and an opportunity to organize instructional resources and materials regarding the schools’ curriculum. During this institute, the School Leadership Team will be developed which will include some parents. During the school year, the Leadership Team will meet monthly to discuss the schools’ needs and staff development will be offered to teachers to help improve academic learning.

• An explanation of how the school will provide assistance to students that are not performing at expected levels to ensure the continued progress of student growth. The applicant needs to define their “expected levels” of performance and delineate a plan accordingly.

Waddell Elementary International Charter School will identify low performing students using the STAR Diagnostic Reading Test and the Stanford Diagnostic Mathematics Test. These tests will enable teachers to identify those skills which a student is lacking, determine reading and math levels, and develop groups. Teachers will design a customized academic program that will provide individualized and differentiated instructions so that students will meet and exceed their educational goal. WEICS teachers will monitor students’ progress to ensure they remain on track. Scaffold lessons will be used so that students will learn to use skills and apply strategies to master. This method of assessment and intervention will lead students to success.
The following chart is a depiction of how the WEICS teacher team will assess outcomes; allow the teachers to give one another tips and strategies on how he/she was successful in getting their students to master a subject. These strategies will be used to meet the appropriate instructional level of each student.

- Details in how the proposed charter plans to involve parents and community members within the school.

WEICS believe that an informed, involved public is necessary to strengthen the children’s sense of belonging and achieving lifelong goals in their communities. The involvement of the communities will benefit the children as well as the civic and economic growth of the communities, state, and country. Waddell Elementary International Charter School will be a community based school. The school will be open to community based meetings, projects, and events.

WEICS will welcome the community, veterans, and parent volunteers, mentors, and lunch buddies. Volunteers will be used to assist with cafeteria duties, office duties, and media duties. Volunteers will also assist teachers in the classroom with filing and copying and other duties assigned by the teacher. The Leadership Team, and the Parent Advisory Board will also have parent representation. There will be some employment for parents.

Teams of talented, diverse community leaders and concerned parents are ready to meet the “No Child Left Behind” mandate and to close the educational gap for low performing students. WEICS will consider parents and community members a part of the WEICS family in helping to “build a firm foundation”.
Describe how the school will meet the needs of gifted, at-risk children, English language learners by explaining the proposed school’s process for identification and service of these students.

Gifted Students:
The WEICS family will include academically gifted students, English language learners, as well as other at-risk students. WEICS is committed to providing unique programs and activities to motivate and inspire students to work to their full potential.
WEICS will begin the identification process for gifted students in the third grade using the following criteria:

- Achievement score of 85 percentile and above in math and/or reading
- Aptitude score of 85 percentile and above
- Teacher check list of 3 out of 5 categories of 60 percentile

Once identified as academically gifted, WEICS will provide an enrichment class for at least 90 minutes per week in the student’s area of eligibility. Strategies to meet the needs of the gifted students include:

- Higher level thinking skills from Bloom’s Taxonomy
- Use of exploratory learning
- Involvement in community service

English Language Learners:
WEICS will use the Wida-Acess Placement Test (W-APT), an English language proficiency test to identify and place English language learners (ELL). This test will assess students in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Identified students will be pulled from their content classes and placed into their English as a Second Language (ESL) class based on their English language proficiency level. The length of these students’ instruction will also depend on their level of English language proficiency.

In order to address the needs of the English language learners, WEICS will organize its classes into five possible language proficiency levels: Level I (Entering), Level II (Beginning), Level III (Developing), Level IV (Expanding), Level V (Bridging). This will allow the curriculum in the ESL classes to address the specific language needs for students at each level of language proficiency. If eligible, ESL students can receive testing accommodations which can include extended time, separate room, read aloud, multiple test sessions, student reads aloud to self and English/native language dictionary or translator. WEICS will provide an environment that will continue to enhance the students’ English language and enable them to acquire the necessary skills to be successful for life.

At-Risk Students:
Waddell Elementary International Charter School will identify at-risk students, including homeless students at the beginning of the school year. Waddell International Partners for, Inc., under the “No Child Left Behind” will adhere to the federal mandate of the Child Find Act to clearly identify homeless children. The law entitles children who are homeless to a free appropriate education. WIPE will remove all barriers for their enrollment, attendance, and success in school.

WEICS will identify at-risk students using a variety of evaluation tools to include diagnostic tests, previous skill assessments, checklists, rubrics, teacher and parent concerns and recommendations. Performance levels will be identified and a personal education plan will be developed according to the data. A referral may also be made to the Intervention Support Team (IST) if necessary. In order to meet the needs of at-risk students, WEICS will provide:

- Teaching and re-teaching
- Individualized tutoring
- Guided instructions
- Study Island (reading skills program)
- Khan Academy (on-line instructional math program)
- Group tutoring
- Peer tutoring

At the end of the school year, data from state testing will show that the at-risk students will have gained one or more years of improvement as a result of remediation.

- Discuss any proposed extra-curricular activities to be offered by the school and how these offerings match the over-all mission of the school.

Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will offer an Area Cooperative Education Services (ACES) after school program that will operate between the hours of 2:30 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. This is a flexible scheduled program that will give students an opportunity to participate in dance, music and art programs as well as intramurals. Homework and other academic studies including reading and math tutorials are an option. Parent and community volunteers will be invited to work with interested students.

SPECIAL EDUCATION (G.S.115C-106)

The charter school must accept special needs children under the federal legislation Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) (20 U.S.C. 1400 Et seq.) and the state legislation (G.S. 115C-106 Et seq.). The proposed school will abide by the charter school legislation, G.S. 115C-238.29F(g)(5), as stated below:

A charter school shall not discriminate against any student on the basis of ethnicity, national origin, gender, or disability. Except as otherwise provided by law or the mission of the school as set out in the charter, the school shall not limit admission to students on the basis of intellectual ability, measures of achievement or aptitude, athletic ability, disability, race, creed, gender, national origin, religion, or ancestry.

Provide a clear and thorough explanation of the procedures the proposed charter will follow to insure compliance of the above laws. As part of this section, the plan should include how you will identify and meet the needs of your projected students (at-risk, gifted/talented, English language learners, and students with disabilities) in a manner that aligns with the overall curriculum, instructional approach, and mission.

Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. and Waddell Elementary International Charter School will not discriminate against any student on the basis of ethnicity, national origin, gender, or disability. Except as otherwise provided by law or the mission of the school as set out in the charter, the school shall not limit admission to students on the basis of intellectual ability, measures of achievement or aptitude, athletic ability, disability, race, creed, gender, national origin, religion, ancestry.

Waddell international Partners for Education, Inc. and Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will comply with the requirement of “No Child Left Behind Act of 2001”.

NCLB supports standards-based education reform based on the premise that setting high standards and establishing measurable goals can improve individual outcomes in education. The Act requires states to develop assessments in basic skills. States must give these assessments to all.

These stakeholders (44 governors and 50 corporate CEOs) set the priorities for high academic standards and expectations for all students.

- Tests that are more rigorous and more challenging, to measure whether students are meeting those standards
- Accountability systems that provide incentives and rewards for educators, students, and parents to work together to help students reach these standards

We will follow the guidelines of “Child Find” for early identification of at-risk students. WEICS will locate these students in the counties where our schools are located.

Students who are at risk of academic failure usually need support to increase their self-efficacy and motivation to learn and to develop positive attitudes towards learning. Waddell Elementary International Charter School at-risk students will experience a caring, supportive, sustained relationship with their teachers. We will use a three-year education looping with teacher and student being looped starting in the first through third grades. We will provide our at-risk students with manageable and achievable tasks at their level and the difficulty level of the task will be increased as they accomplished more. These approaches will create a sense of accomplishment, prevent frustration and will help to increase students’ self-efficacy.
A three-tiered approach: Tier-1 refers to the instruction through the core program. Tier-2 is intended to providing supplemental and extended instruction. Tier-3, the final tier: explanation of how the school will provide assistance to students that are not performing at expected levels to ensure the continued progress of student growth.

Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. has studied the NCDPI guidelines for Exceptional Children and section 504 and will implement these guidelines for our students. The student's Individualized Education Program (IEP) team will make the decision about which type of assessment the student should take, as well as decisions about the need for any appropriate accommodations.

Decisions about how a student will participate in the state's accountability system are made on a student-by-student, assessment-by-assessment and year-by-year basis. In the case of a student who takes an alternate assessment, the student's IEP will include a statement of why the student cannot participate in the regular assessment (with appropriate accommodations, as necessary) and the particular alternate assessment selected.

WEICS will:

- Hire EC professionals (inclusive of bi-lingual)
- Provide assessments for Individual Education Plan
- Provide a continuous assessment plan for Exceptional Children
- Make the required adjustments to its facilities to accommodate our special need students.
- Have a posted evacuation plan for students with mobility disabilities
- Include parents/guardians of disabled students in review and make suggestions on how WEICS can and will improve its Special Needs Policies
- Adopt the Child Find policy
- Provide an Emergency Preparedness and Communication Access Policy for Special Needs students
- Solicit the assistance of the Universities such as UNCC, Fayetteville State, NC A&T State University, Bennett College, Greensboro College and the UNC at Pembroke for the latest research and best practices for Special Needs students.
The ever changing technology and pedagogical theory has allowed the flexibility for the inclusion of exceptional children.

WEICS will use tools to assist students with learning disabilities such as highlighters, color coding files or drawers, books on tape, tape recorders, calculators or a different paper color or background color on a computer screen, complex or high-tech, assistive technology devices include:

- Computers with print-recognition software that "read" text aloud
- Speech recognition systems that turn oral language into written text
- Talking calculators that assist people with math difficulties
- Software that predicts and edits words for people who are prone to spelling difficulties

.ACADEMICALLY GIFTED STUDENTS

These are the standard approved criteria that WEICS Administrators, Head Masters, and Staff will use to identify Academically Gifted Students. Identification for AG eligibility begins in third grade and uses the following criteria:

- Aptitude: 85 percentile and above*
- Achievement: 85 percentile and above
- Gifted Rating Scale score (t score) of 60 and above in four of five categories

The AG department partners, Head Master and staff will develop ways to recognize and document gifted characteristics in children beginning at 3rd grade using various research-based approaches. We will partner with the Education Department at NC A&T State University for research based approaches for all WEICS students.

English as a Second Language Formative Assessment Tasks

A team of EC professionals will assess tasks and instruments based on topics that would appeal to students, organized by the four skill areas (speaking, listening, writing and reading) that can easily be integrated into second language classroom activities. The tasks are provided as prototypes to serve as a starting point for teachers as they develop their own assessment tasks.

These support materials are consistent with a communicative/experiential approach and are designed to provide both the teacher and the learner with useful feedback on the student’s progress in tasks requiring authentic communication of messages, ideas, feelings, and/or opinions. NCLB Act requires that additional required tests, WIDA ACCESS Placement Test (W-APT™) – Initial Testing for students identified as limited English proficient, ACCESS for ELLs assessment—Yearly assessment for students identified as limited English proficient.

Homeless and Migrant Students

The NCLB has a provision for children of school age who are homeless and/or migrant. The “Child Find Act” clearly identifies homeless and migrant children and the obligation of public and charter schools to locate them. The law entitles children who are homeless and migrant to a free, appropriate public education and requires schools to remove barriers to their enrollment, attendance, and success in school. This Act protects all students who do not have a fixed, regular and adequate residence, such as students living in the following situations:

- doubled-up housing with other families or friends due to hardship
- runaway/homeless youth shelters (even if parents invite the youth home)
- hotels or motels
- shelters, including domestic violence shelters
- transitional housing shelters
- cars, abandoned buildings parks, the streets or other public spaces
- campgrounds or inadequate trailer homes
- awaiting foster care placement and/or
- abandoned in a hospital

Waddell International Partners for Education will make these key provisions in this federal law as listed below:

- WEICS social workers will be the homeless education liaison/coordinators to assist families and school personnel in ensuring that students who are homeless can enroll and succeed in school
- Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will enroll students experiencing homelessness, even if they do not have proof of residency, school and immunization records, birth certificates or other documents, and even if they are not accompanied by an adult
- WEICS will provide the students experiencing homelessness, based on individual need, services provided to other students such as preschool, free or reduced school meals, services for English language learners, special education, vocational/technical education, gifted and talented services, and before- and after-school care
- Students in homeless situations are automatically eligible for Title I services
- If there is disagreement as to whether a student experiencing homelessness is eligible to attend the school he/she chooses, the school district is to provide a written explanation as to why they believe the student is not eligible and allow the student to go to the school he/she chooses while such disagreements are settled. The LEA liaison/ coordinator is responsible for settling such disagreements
- Students in homeless situations are to attend schools with children who are not experiencing homelessness rather than be placed in separate schools because they are homeless
- Students experiencing homelessness are to have the opportunity to meet the same high academic achievement standards as all students

STUDENT CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE (G.S.115C-238.29B(b)(12); G.S. 115C-238.29F(d)(4 and 5))

Provide drafts, included in this section, of student handbooks and other policies governing student conduct and discipline. Include policies and procedures governing suspension and expulsion of students. Specifically address these policies with respect to exceptional children. Also describe how a parent could appeal the decision of a school administrator through a grievance process.

Discipline

Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools (WEICS) are committed to maintaining an environment of discipline in order to establish positive learning environments that ensure every student receives an appropriate education. State law addresses the responsibilities of teachers and principals as follows:

"It shall be the duty of all teachers, including student teachers, substitute teachers, voluntary teachers and teacher assistants when given authority over some part of the school program by the principal or supervising teacher, to maintain good order and discipline in their respective schools.” (G.S. 115C-307)

“The principal shall have the authority to exercise discipline over the pupils of the school pursuant to policies adopted by the local Board of Education as prescribed by G.S. 115C-391.” (G.S. 115C-288)

The students of Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that represents the “Six Pillars of Character.” We encourage our parents/guardians to express any concerns they have about their child’s education and/or learning environment.

Preventive Measures

Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools Board, Superintendent, Head Masters, Teachers and all school personnel, when necessary, make reasonable efforts to initiate preventive measures when it is recognized that a student is behaving in a manner that indicates potential disciplinary problems.

Possible preventive intervention procedures may include, but are not limited to:

- Conferences with the student
- Conferences with the parents/guardians
- Periodic follow-up reports to parents/guardians and
- Referral to appropriate support personnel

Our School policy encourage all school personnel, as stakeholders, to actively seek effective, positive methods and strategies to encourage and assist each student to behave in a manner that is positive to learning and that respects the rights of others. Each school Head Master will identify potential problem areas within his/her school that may contribute to and maintain a positive school environment to minimize discipline problems.

Corporal Punishment, Use of Reasonable Force, Seclusion and Restraint

It is WEICS responsibility and policy to maintain safety in our schools. During a time when our cities have faced violence in schools, our goal is to recognize any potential behavior that will disrupt a peaceful learning environment.

Waddell Elementary International Charter School believes and encourages that discipline can be maintained without the use of corporal punishment. Therefore, WEICS prohibits the use of corporal punishment by Head Masters, teachers, substitute teachers, student teachers or volunteers and any other school personnel

While WEICS prohibits the use of corporal punishment as a means of discipline, school personnel may use reasonable force to control behavior or to remove a person from the scene in the following situations:

- To prevent any disturbance threatening injury to others
- To obtain possession of weapons or other dangerous objects on the person or within the control of a student for self-defense
- For the protection of persons or property, and
- To maintain order on school property, in the classroom, or at a school-related activity on Schools shall not use seclusion or restraint as a means of discipline except as provided by law. The Superintendent is directed to develop procedures regarding the use of seclusion, restraint and isolation.

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

While the teacher has the major responsibility for classroom discipline, some disruptive behavior may require the attention of the Head Master or his/her designee. State law assigns the Head Master the authority to suspend for 10 days or less, or with prior approval of the Superintendent, for more than 10 days (G.S. 115C-391). Special statutory provisions apply in the event that a student enrolled in an exceptional children's program exhibits behavior which might result in suspension or expulsion (G.S. 115C-112). The Board expects the Head Master to treat any suspension or expulsion as a very serious matter and in such instances the Head Master should utilize resources at his/her disposal in an effort to affect another solution. In the event a student must be suspended or excluded, the Board expects such action will be in full compliance with the provisions of the law and with the schools' administrative policies and/or procedures.

A right to a hearing before the WEICS Board or a panel thereof as provided in N.C.G.S. §115C-45(c), the student has the right to be represented at the hearing by legal counsel; provided, however, if the student intends to be represented, he/she must notify the Superintendent for the Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools prior to the date set for the hearing. A full statement of the appeal process will be included in the school handbook.

Year-Long Suspension— Students who bring weapons or explosives or physically assault teachers, other adults or students or who participate in a bomb threat or hoax may be suspended up to 365 days or placed in an alternative setting if the criteria set out in N.C.G.S. 115C-391 are met. In some instances, a suspension for 365 days is mandatory. Students may be placed in alternative settings at the expiration of their long-term suspensions if re-entry into the regular education program could not reasonably result in appropriate academic progress.

STANDARD FOR EXPULSION

TWO-TIERED TEST

1. Did the student commit the act that forms the basis for the recommendation for expulsion?
2. Is the student’s continued presence a clear threat to the safety of other students or and employees sufficient to justify expulsion from all school programs?

STRUCTURE OF PROCESS

N.C.G.S. §115C-391(d) provides that a student can be expelled from Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools if the Head Master and Superintendent recommend expulsion to the Waddell Elementary International Charter School Board and the Board finds, based on clear and convincing evidence, that the student’s continued presence in school constitutes a clear threat to the safety of other students or employees. Therefore, the Head Master and Superintendent or designees need to conduct an investigation and hearing to finalize their recommendation to the Board. Then a panel of the Board shall convene and determine whether to expel the student.

PARENTS/GUARDIANS RIGHTS TO APPEAL

PROCEDURE FOR DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS AND APPEALS

(In-School Suspension/ISS and Out-of-School Suspensions/OSS for 10 days or less)

c) If the investigation is complete at the conclusion of the conference, the parent/student will be informed of the long-term recommendation and given appeal information, and

d) If the investigation is incomplete at the conclusion of the conference, then the head master will render a decision as soon as the investigation is complete.

If the parent/student wishes to pursue an appeal to a panel of the Board, the written request must be received by the Board within two (2) school days upon receipt of the written decision of the Superintendent. A Board panel, composed of not less than three (3) members of the Board, will hear and act upon the Superintendent’s recommendation in the name of and on behalf of the Board.

1. The school administration and the parent/student will have the opportunity to present their case(s) to the Panel. The hearing will be recorded.

to the WEICS Board and the Board finds, based on clear and convincing evidence, that the student’s continued presence in school constitutes a clear threat to the safety of other students or employees.

Disciplinary Procedures for STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES of the General Statutes

WEICS will agree to the compliance of all applicable federal and state laws and regulations governing discipline of children with disabilities, including compliance with 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq. and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S. C. Sec. 706(8).

Students receiving services pursuant to IDEA may have additional or different procedures and outcomes for suspensions of more than 10 days. (WEICS will develop guidelines for Long-Term Suspension of Students with Disabilities) Additionally, WEICS will use the Handbook of Parents’ Rights, published by the State of North Carolina, provides information about the process of suspending students who receive special education.

Education of Expelled students

Parents should review your child's Individualized Education Plan and Behavior Intervention Plan if the child is in a special education program. There will be a determination hearing that takes place before the expulsion hearing to ensure the parent/guardian, designated representative that the school has followed the procedures delineated in your child's special education paperwork.

All parents will be advised to talk with the school counselor to receive instruction at home. WEICS students can continue much of their coursework on-line in that we are using Khan Academy, MIT University’s “Scratch” for art, music and writing.

ENROLLMENT and BUSINESS PLAN (GS 115C.238.29F(g)(1-7))
Provide a plan indicating how the school will reasonably reflect the demographic composition of the district in which the charter school will be located or of the special population the school seeks to serve: (G.S.115C.238.29F(g)(5)).

Waddell Elementary International Charter School

ENROLLMENT and BUSINESS PLAN

Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. has formed a network of collaborators with representatives from a variety of ethnic groups, socio-economic groups and community leaders. Our marketing strategy has crossed all demographic groups because we are African Americans, Native Americans, Hispanic Americans, Caucasian Americans, Jewish Americans and other diverse ethnic groups.

Our staff will be reflective of the schools’ communities. We believe that this is the first indicator to our potential students and parents that they are welcomed in our schools. We will have interpreters in Spanish for our Hispanic parents and students. We have involved parents and community leaders in the planning stages of the schools. Veterans, politicians, and community leaders, have attended our meetings, and signed letters of endorsements.

Marketing to potential students and parents is vital to the survival of a charter school. Reaching the full capacity for enrollment will be critical to obtain the necessary financial resources to keep your school viable and operating efficiently. In addition, it is required by law that charter schools provide equal access to all students. Read the charter school State Statute regarding admissions GS 115C.238.29F(g) (1-7) carefully. Describe how the board will market the school to all populations (including various community ethnic groups, teachers and other employees, and the general public) to ensure that the school fully complies with the State Statute to mirror the diversity of the local education agency.

Marketing has been word of mouth, churches, social organizations, social media, radio and TV announcements. Our committees have gone door-to-door informing, passing flyer and getting petitions from interested parents, community leaders. Because of our diversity, we have included all demographic groups with the idea that the make-up of our school should reflect the make up of our counties.

Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. has held town hall meetings to form advisory boards in every county to empower the interested citizens to create a vision of their school. We provide power point presentations stating the mission, outlining the curriculum and statistics. (See Power Point in the appendices)

MARKETING A FIVE YEAR PLAN Reaching Our Audience and Selling Our Value

Core objectives

Our marketing plan strategic framework builds on our mission statement and school environment, focusing efforts on four key objectives and corresponding strategies:

1. Expand a diversified community and county wide marketing platform
2. Enrich our brand within our school counties
3. Deepen community engagement
4. Grow parent and community visitations and contributions to our schools

These objectives form the backbone for the framework of our multi-year marketing plan

We will conduct a comprehensive demographic study of projected future enrollment trends, using data already collected by our administrative Office for WEICS Schools. From this, we can develop recommendations on potential market share.

Marketing at the school level

Marketing plans

Our Superintendent and Head Masters will identify and understand their target markets (including students at private schools) and the best way to reach them. As part of our marketing plan, WEICS schools will:

- Create an annual marketing/public relations calendar
- Coordinate written communications aimed at various constituencies
- Create a media plan using news releases, ads, publications, brochures, etc.
- Design a personal communication plan to reach community, business, civic and educational leaders

Recruitment and retention strategies

Each elementary school Head Master and staff will include an enrollment and retention plan in its overall advancement plan. Effective recruitment messages have started since the inception of our charter schools. We will continue to repeat the recruitment messages often. Marketing for the WEICS schools will begin with kindergarten for first grade with marriage and birth announcements. Our schools will invite parents and students onsite as one of our strategies to recruit students.

WEICS Schools will also reach out to those who are not choosing Charter schools. Retention strategies begin with a welcoming atmosphere at WEICS Schools. Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. and Waddell Elementary International Schools will develop an outreach program for new families and young parents, by holding special events for them.

The numbers in the following tables are projections, or estimates, and do not bind the State to fund the school at any particular level.

For the first two years the State will fund the school up to the maximum projected enrollment for each of those years approved in the projected enrollment tables. However, in subsequent years, the school may increase its enrollment only as permitted by G.S. 115C-238.29D(d), that is, an increase of 20% per year based on the previous year’s enrollment. Any increase above 20% must be approved by the State Board of Education in accordance with G.S. 115C-238D(d).

In the following tables, please list for each year and grade level, the numbers of students that the school reasonably expects to enroll. In addition, please indicate any plans to increase the grade levels offered by the school over time and be sure these figures match those on the initial cover page. In describing your budgetary assumptions, explain the analysis utilized to project these specific enrollment figures. If your budget projections are lower than anticipated, how will the school adjust this budget and what is the determined break-even point for student enrollment?

Also, in narrative format, explain how your spending priorities align with the school’s mission, curricular offerings, transportation plans, and professional development needs. Be able to depict in chart format and discuss in a narrative how the school will maintain a small, contingency reserve and operate using sound fiscal practices. As you construct the budget, include any and all documentation about cash on hand, bonds, real estate, or grants as part of this application package.

BUDGET NARRATIVE: Please include additional information that showcases all assumptions for your budgetary calculations. For instance, you may start the first year with 10 teachers but plan to add 2 teachers each year. The increase may be seen in the budget; however, the specific assumptions are missing beyond the projected first year. Use this space to explain, in depth, your budget calculations for years 2 through 5.

Years 2 through 5 enrollments will be stable. Each year a kindergarten class will be added with a projection of 20% increase in enrollment from 2013-2016. The change in teacher cost during these years is due to an increase and enrollment. Marketing cost will decrease in years 2015 – 2018 based on retention of our students, our excellence curriculum, and parent and community involvement.

HEALTH AND SAFETY REQUIREMENTS (G.S. 115C-238.29F(a))

Describe how the school plans to adhere to the requirements of the health and safety laws and regulations of the federal and state governments. Address how the proposed charter school will meet the following requirements:

• Safety

  Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. and Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will have monthly facility inspections and yearly OSHA inspections. However, any immediate dangers that will pose a problem for our students will be repaired immediately. All Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will receive an initial health and fire inspection prior to opening. All occupancy permits will be in force prior to the opening of our schools.

• Immunization of Students

  Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will require proof and date of immunizations as part of the application process. All students’ immunization records must be current prior to enrollment. Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will direct students in need of immunizations to resources made accessible by the local health department. All students must have full immunizations within thirty days of enrollment or the student will be suspended until he/she is in compliance.

• Fire and Safety Regulations
  Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. and Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will adhere to all federal, state and local fire department official regulations, guidelines, and/ or inspection of premises or operations of our schools. Our school premises will be open for inspection from both the local health inspectors and fire departments. WEICS buildings will meet the necessary safety codes, including appropriate fire control mechanisms, for example, fire extinguishers, fire alarm system and/or sprinkler system. The Head Masters will schedule, hold, and report monthly fire drills. Exits and fire evacuation plans will be posted in each room and hallways of the building. The schools’ building will be available for inspection to appropriate officials for regular inspections and for special inspections prompted by a complaint by an interested party. WEICS schools will have all of the occupancy permits prior to the opening of our schools. Head Masters will call upon the local fire chief for staff and student fire and terrorist evacuation trainings. All employees, staff and volunteers will attend a training workshop at the beginning of each school year. New employees who are employed afterwards will receive individual training.

Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will address and protect the health and safety of all students and staff by developing and implementing a School Safety Plan including a Crisis Intervention and Response Policy. (See sample below) All employees, staff, volunteers will attend a training workshop at the beginning of each school year. New employees who are employed afterwards will receive individual training.

Events Requiring Crisis Intervention

• Crisis Intervention events are unanticipated, catastrophic incidents which affect all or a majority of the student body. Examples of the types of qualifying events include natural disasters such as fires and earthquakes, evacuations, hostage or gunman situations, terrorist attacks, death of a teacher or student, and any other threat that directly targets the safety of students.

Crisis Intervention Teams

• The Waddell Elementary Charter Schools crisis intervention plan will identify responders at all levels of the organization. There will be a school response team, at each school comprised of teachers and staff members from the individual schools. These individuals will deal with the emergent situation and the immediate crisis. Larger crisis intervention teams, made up of individuals from the school district and local community within the counties can help in the aftermath of a crisis. Community mental health providers or the school can provide counseling services to staff and students. Community leaders, fire departments and hospitals may help to facilitate sharing of equipment, buildings and other resources in the event a particular school is damaged by a natural disaster.
Situation Specific Plans

- The Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools will have details about the procedures for each type of emergency situation. Handling an evacuation due to a fire will require very different steps than dealing with a hostage situation inside the school. For example, the evacuation procedures will need to include details such as the meeting point, entrances and exits from the building, who is responsible for checking the building to ensure no student is left behind, and who coordinates with the fire department. In the case of a hostage/gunman scenario, the plan should cover who will handle negotiations (ideally, only trained professionals or the police), the procedures for alerting the police, and what to do with students who remain in the building (remain in their classrooms with the doors closed and secured).

Roles and Responsibilities

- The crisis intervention plan will clearly delineate individual staff members' roles and responsibilities during a crisis. The Head Master’s designated employee in the event of the Head Master’s absences or inability to function in the lead role of the school. Phone tree information should be maintained, and staff should be aware of the order of the phone tree, as well as contingency plans if a link in the tree is unavailable. The plan should state who has overall decision-making authority during a crisis, who will serve as a spokesperson, who is in charge of communicating with parents, and who should report in the event of a natural disaster. Scripts or step-by-step procedures for general events such as notifying parents or evacuating the building will be available.

Post-Crisis Debriefing

- Our plan will not stop at addressing the crisis itself. WEICS administrators and staff will have a list of contact information for available resources such as mental health professionals and community organizations who can work with staff, students, and parents to process the events and deal with the trauma.

Food Inspections

WEICS will not have on-site preparation of food. All breakfasts, lunch and snacks will be catered in each day by a state approved catering service. WEICS will not store any left-over foods or give away any foods that were prepared consumption on a daily basis. Food will be maintained at the required health department temperature and storage requirements.

Hazardous Chemicals

All hazardous chemicals will be identified with a hazardous chemical label and maintained out of the reach of our students in a locked closet that only designated employees have access. Waddell International Partners for Education, Inc. has the responsibility to inform and adequately train its employees who work with hazardous substances and to design and implement employee protection programs. Employee training programs will provide the necessary hazard information to school staff so they can participate in and support measures in place at school. Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) will be on site and available for review of anyone coming in contact with chemicals. A central file will be kept in the main office of MSDS. OSHA’s Hazard Communication Standard applies to schools.
because all workers may use or be exposed to hazardous chemicals. The school will have a written hazard communication program available to all.

• Bloodborne Pathogens

  All staff of WEICS will be trained in blood borne pathogen, CPR and first aid. WEICS will act in accordance with OSHA’s Blood-borne Pathogen Standard to establish an exposure control plan to minimize workplace risks. Blood-borne pathogens refer to pathogenic microorganisms that are present in human blood and that can cause disease in humans. These pathogens include, but are not limited to hepatitis B virus (HBV) and human immunodeficiency virus (HIV). OSHA standards apply to all occupational exposure to blood (human blood, human blood components, and products made from human blood) or to other potentially infectious materials containing cell or tissue cultures, organs, or other tissue from experimental animals infected with HIV or HBV. WEICS will have a written Exposure Control Plan that is accessible to all employees. The Plan will include:

  1. Designated job classifications, tasks and procedures which involve potential exposure;
  2. Indications of required engineering and work practice controls and
  3. Specifications of necessary personal protective equipment

Training to protect employees and children and reduce workplace risks of hepatitis B and HIV infection will include such topics as the following:

• Modes of transmission of blood-borne pathogens
• Identifying hazards
• Prevention through engineering controls
• Handling contaminated syringes, laundry, and biomedical waste
• Proper use of personal protective equipment
• Instituting safe workplace practices and engineering controls
• Hepatitis B vaccine
• Proper “housekeeping” to avoid risk
• Post-exposure reporting

• Diabetes care plans

  Waddell Elementary International Charter Schools’ personnel will be trained by the school nurse to assist students with routine and emergency diabetic issues.

  ADA recommends the following related to school staff training:

  • All school staff members who have responsibility for a student with diabetes should receive training that provides a basic understanding of the disease and know who to contact in an emergency.
  • A small group of school staff members should receive training from a school nurse or another qualified health care professional such as a physician or a nurse with expertise in diabetes, and also in student-specific routine and emergency care.
  • The school nurse or another qualified health professional should be involved with training of appropriate staff and providing ongoing professional supervision and consultation regarding routine and emergency care of students with diabetes.
• Providing students in grades 9-12 with information on how a parent may lawfully abandon a newborn

• Providing parents and guardians with information about:
  o Meningococcal meningitis and influenza and their vaccines at the beginning of each year:
    We will give information to parents and guardians at the beginning of each year with information about meningococcal meningitis and influenza. These handouts will include information about vaccines, causes, and symptoms, how they are spread and where parents can get more information and vaccines for their children.

    WEICS will provide the vaccination statement as per the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Center for Disease Control and Prevention.

  o Cervical cancer, cervical dysplasia, human papillomavirus, and the vaccines available to prevent diseases:
    WEICS will give parents and guardians of students in grade 5, information about cervical cancer, cervical dysplasia, human papillomavirus, and the vaccines available to prevent these diseases. This information will be provided at the beginning of each school year, and will include causes, symptoms, how these diseases are transmitted, vaccines that can prevent them, benefits and possible side effects of vaccines, and where parents and guardians can get more information.
