

Measurement

Goal: The learner will understand and use measurement concepts.

Objective:

2.02 Apply and use concepts of indirect measurement.

To achieve this objective, students should:

- Use ratios, similar figures, and the Pythagorean Theorem to determine measurements that are difficult or inconvenient to find with direct measurement.
- Use nonstandard measuring tools to approximate length, perimeter/circumference, area and volume.