

Instructional Leadership Institute

July 28-31, 2015 ~ NCAE Center, Raleigh

Designed by teachers across North Carolina, the NCAE Instructional Leadership Institute (ILI) builds teacher leaders growing new skills and support, specifically around college and career ready standards, and standards-based teaching and learning. This four-day institute will also connect resources and tools for parent and community outreach, and directly connects to Standard I – Leadership.

Interested NCAE members must complete the online application, including two references regarding teacher leadership & professional learning, by May 15. Applications will be reviewed and acceptances sent by June 3.
