Skill and Critical Rule

"Today, we are going to talk about ways to BE RESPECTFUL to others at school."

- what are we going to talk about?

Ask students to define what BEING RESPECTFUL means. Shape their responses into observable behaviors (e.g., if they say to be 'nice,' ask for examples of being nice that equate to observable skills such as taking turns, asking someone to play...

"There are several ways to BE RESPECTFUL to others. For example, we can:

- make good choices
- we can tell our side in polite ways
- follow adult directions without arguing
- treat each other nicely

"What are some ways we can BE RESPECTFUL at school?"

- Review above key behaviors and any other skills the students identify

Demonstration & Role Play

Demonstration

"I am going to show you some ways to BE RESPECTFUL and some ways to BE UN-RESPECTFUL. I want you to watch me and see if you can tell if I am BEING RESPECTFUL.

- Following each demonstration, ask the students if you were BEING RESPECTFUL. Ask what you might do instead during non-examples

Examples

- 1 Yell out to a friend that is passing by during class
- 2 Follow a teacher direction to be seated quietly.
- 3 Make fun of someone who makes a mistake while reading.
- 4 Listen to the teacher direction and then tell you side using a polite tone.
- 5 Ignore a friend who is talking during quiet class time.

Role Plays

Set up a few practice sessions with your students (based on key behaviors of rule) or use older students to role play APPROPRIATE examples of the skill.

- Following each role play review with all students:

"Was he/she being RESPECTFUL?"

"How do you know?"

Review & Test

"Today we talked about BEING RESPECTFUL at school. There are lots of ways to BE RESPECTFUL.

Ask students to identify key behaviors to BEING RESPECTFUL.

Homework

"Today, we will be watching you at school to see if you are BEING RESPECTFUL to others. If you are BEING RESPECTFUL you may earn a pride ticket. Every now and then I will ask you to tell me what you did to BE RESPECTFUL.

- what should you do at school?
- What am I going to ask you?
