State Evaluation Committee on Teacher Education

The State Evaluation Committee on Teacher Education meets three times annually to review the reports of on-site teacher education program approval visitation teams and to make recommendations to the State Board of Education concerning program approval. The Committee reviews proposals for alternative programs for lateral entry teachers and makes program approval recommendations to the State Board. The recommendations are based on a program's demonstrated compliance with state standards. The Committee also assesses the involvement of institutions with public schools as part of the IHE Performance Report.

The committee consists of 18 members representing higher education and public school practitioners. Members are appointed for three-year staggered terms. No one can serve more than two consecutive terms. Members are named by the State Board of Education from recommendations submitted by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The following individual is recommended for reappointment:

- Dr. Jewell Cooper, Associate Professor, UNC-Greensboro

Note: Dr. Cooper has been an active member of the Committee.

The following individuals are recommended for initial appointment:

- Dr. Anita Alpenfels, Executive Director for Human Resources, Moore County Schools
- Dr. Betsy Burrows, Assistant Professor, Brevard College
- Dr. Linda Dunlap, Director, Teacher Education, Central Piedmont Community College
- Ms. Jennifer Gayford, Teacher, South Topsail Elementary School, Pender County
- Mr. James Overman, Principal, East Garner Elementary School, Wake County Public School
- Dr. Manuel Vargas, Professor, Winston-Salem State University
