Dear Dr. Stevenson:

The North Carolina State Board of Education (SBE) is considering several possible amendments to the North Carolina Accountability Workbook for the 2008-09 school year. We request approval to proceed on these issues before making formal amendments to the Accountability Workbook for submission to your office.

For the 2008-09 School Year:

- 1. Students with Disabilities Who Exit the Program – The SBE wants to apply the same process to students with disabilities (SWD), who are no longer classified as SWD for the last two years, that is used for incorporating students, who are no longer limited English proficient (LEP) students within the last two years, in the calculations for determining adequate yearly progress (AYP). The inclusion of these students in the AYP calculations will occur only in those instances where the school or district already has an existing subgroup that has not made AYP.
- 2. Retesting Results in Grades 3 through 8 – The SBE at its last meeting voted to allow schools and districts to use retest results in grades 3 through 8 in the calculations of the ABCs Performance Composites and (pending USED approval) AYP. All students that do not score Achievement Level III (proficient) or higher on the initial test administration will be afforded the opportunity to retake the test. The NC Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI) will use the higher of the two scores from the student (either from the initial test or the first retest) in making the determinations. The use of the standard error of measurement (SEM) to exclude students from being retested has been eliminated by the SBE and the scores from the schools and districts must be submitted to NCDPI before July 1 in order for AYP determinations to be made prior to the opening of schools in the fall.
- 3. Redundancy in End-of-Course (EOC) and End-of-Grade (EOG) Testing – Allowing EOC scores to count as EOG scores in the middle grades would eliminate the need for students to be tested with two different tests in the same grade level within the same content area. For example, students in the eighth grade who take Algebra I would take the Algebra I EOC assessment and not have to take the eighth grade mathematics EOG. Once these students are in the tenth grade, their Geometry or Algebra II EOC score would count as the high school mathematics indicator for determining AYP. This prevents the same test score from being used in two grade levels (i.e. Algebra I counting in the eighth grade and then as a banked score when the student is in the tenth grade).

Please contact Dr. Lou Fabrizio, Director of Accountability Policy & Communications, at (919) 807-3770 or Lfabrizio@dpi.state.nc.us if you have any questions. We look forward to receiving feedback on the possible amendments to our Accountability Workbook so we can complete our plans for this school year.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Garland, Ed. D.
